Scam Alert

The City of Primghar has been notified of a scam going around where residents will receive a phone call informing them that their utility account is delinquent and that a payment needs to be made to not be disconnected. While the city does make phone calls like these, either Sarah or Amber make calls on past due accounts and state that they are with the City of Primghar. If the call doesn't come from 712-957-2435 or 712-957-3283 then it is not a legit phone call. Please call the office at 712-957-2435 if you have any questions.
